

EIGHT FORTY-NINER

BENEVOLENT AND PROTECTIVE ORDER OF ELKS

APRIL, 2011

PROVO, UTAH

VOLUME 64, ISSUE 11

EXALTED RULERS MESSAGE:

I would like to thank the members for supporting me for Exalted Ruler. I hope to serve Provo Lodge well. I have great officers, and committees as well. Many members are not listed as officers or committeeman, but have made commitments to be involved. Thank you.

You'll notice on page 6 there is a list of Elkivities. We hope to do more than what is listed. Jeff Hartley would like to start a Golf Outing every other Sunday at a different local course. If you would be interested in this, PLEASE give Jeff a call at 801-318-0277. This can only happen if there is enough interest. Do you have an outing or event that you would like to do? Let me know. We need more activities.

We will be holding Monday Night Dinners occasionally. This is to raise funds for our lodge charities such as Kids' Halloween and Kids' Christmas Parties. See page 5.

Lodge hours will be changing. This is so hours advertised or posted will be MINIMUM operating hours. We will not be closing early but may stay open later. This will happen in the near future.

If you have any problems with the way you are treated in the Lodge, please let me know. You are not just members of the lodge, but you are also the customers and are needed for our success.

I would like congratulate Tina-marie Teeples and her officers for leading the LOE this new year. I look forward to working, and supporting them. Several Lodges in Utah no longer have an LOE and I am proud that Provo still does and hopefully always will. Congratulations Tina!

This month and next we have a Wendover Fun Trip scheduled. The cost is $25 and the fun is priceless. See the ad on page 6. This event is open to anyone over 21.

We will be having several activities and you can bring your friends, neighbors, or relatives to. We are hoping this will increase membership. There will also be events that we encourage the kids to attend. I will point those out as well each month. This Easter Egg Hunt for the kids is an example. Brenda Shaw is chairing this and she has always done a great job. The attendance surprises us each year. Checkout the ad on the back cover for details.

Please cut out the current calendar on page 4 and put it on the fridge or somewhere that you will notice what is going on each day. The following months calendar is subject to change.

Please, if you know of any sickness or distress in the home of an Elk, please notify the Lodge (801) 373-0849. Many times we are placed in an embarrassing situation because a member or a member of their family was hospitalized or ill at home and was not called upon by the Lodge. We all appreciate it when our friends wish us well when we are under the weather.

LADIES OF ELKS

Dear Ladies:

This year has come to the end and the time has come for the new officers, the officers that have been elected are ready to take on the job as LOE officers 2011-2012 they are eager to get the new year going. I am confident that the new officers will do a great job as these ladies are all great in my book.

I wish to thank all the ladies who helped in 2010-2011 first my officers who did a great job helping in every way they could, also the LOE ladies who also helped, the ladies that helped would some times they would bring treats, donate money, offer advice, donate their time, and some who just gave it all, helping the lodge and others who were in need, they ehlped in many ways with fund raisers and events that took place at the Lodge, and sometimes other places like the Farrer School where the Elks and Ladies served Thanksgiving dinner to the people in need. it was a lost of fun also.

THANK YOU

There is a Wendover bus trip on Saturday, April 16th. Sign up

How To Get New Members? Ask.

ELK OF THE MONTH

Our Elk-Of-The-Month is a way to recognize our outstanding volunteers all year round. We ask that members submit nominations of volunteers that are going above and beyond, those members that are making a difference. These members are recognized at our last regular meeting each month. In this way they are honored in front of the people that they work so hard for. They are also recognized in this monthly newsletter. We find we can recognize more people this way and in a more timely matter. These awards are given for excellent work above and beyond the volunteer's position, and benefiting one or more areas of the lodge.

The deadline to submit nominations for Elk-Of-The-Month is the 1st day of each month for the following month.

The individual chosen as Elk-Of-The-Month may have brought unique contributions to our Lodge over the years or in a short period of time, is a newer or older member, has shown us what it really means to be an Elk or simply deserves some recognition for which they are and what they represent. If you believe that you know of someone who would be a good candidate for this special honor, please leave a request in a sealed envelope in the Lounge. Thank you, John M. Belvedere, Exalted Ruler.
